NINE NIGHTS OF LIVE MUSIC AT THE LEGENDARY
SWEETWATER MUSIC HALL
OCTOBER 9 – 17, 2015

SAN RAFAEL, CA (September 8, 2015) – Film premieres and live music have played an integral part of the Mill Valley Film Festival's long history. This year the California Film Institute is pleased to announce MVFF will be in residence for nine nights at the landmark Sweetwater Music Hall located in the heart of downtown Mill Valley.

Artists scheduled to appear include

DEAN WEEN GROUP | Friday, October 9

Master guitarist Dean Ween's (Voodoo Lady, Bananas and Blow, Piss Up a Rope) real name is Captain Michael "Mickey" Melchionado, Jr., and whenever he's not leading deep-ocean fishing tours (he really is a captain), he joins up with his daring crew of music-making band-mates, captivating audiences with harmonic theatrics, off-the-wall lyrics, and an outrageous stage presence.

THE MOTHER TRUCKERS featuring Shawn Sahn of the Texas Tornados | Sunday, October 11

Following the screening of Sir Doug and the Genuine Texas Cosmic Groove, Shawn Sahn, the son of the late Doug Sahn (the subject of the film) will join The Mother Truckers to celebrate the life and legacy of the legendary musical madman and founder of the psychedelic Sir Douglas Quintet.

THE BROTHERS COMATOSE | Monday, October 12

Having built a tremendously loyal (and large) following with their lively concerts and upbeat folky-bluesy string band tunes, the locally bred Brothers Comatose have returned from inaugurating their self-named Sierra mountain music festival, Comatopia. They bring their hot licks and hootenanny magic to Mill Valley, where there is guaranteed to be at least one enormous sing-along before the party ends.

OLIVE AND THE DIRTY MARTINIS | Tuesday, October 13

These '60s-and-'70s cover-song specialists are an outrageous crew, including one educator / theater company founder - Steve Riffkin, one brain surgeon/rocket scientist - Eric Lyons, one writer/director/filmmaker - James Redford, and two actual musicians, Justin Ganz and "Olive" herself, Stefanie Coyote. Celebrating the MVFF screening of Redford's documentary Paper Tigers, this fun-loving ensemble slinks into the Sweetwater with an irresistibly danceable show that is a lot like its name—cool, dry, and a little dirty.

TOMMY IGOE | Wednesday, October 14

He's a global drumming icon, known locally for the Tommy Igoe Groove Conspiracy, but best known as the founder of the Birdland Big Band, of New York City's legendary Birdland Jazz Club. Igoe brings an all-star sextet, specially "curated" for this show, featuring sax sensations Marc Russo (Doobie Brothers) and Tom Politzer (Tower of Power), with Dan Parenti (Michael

STROKE 9 | Thursday, October 15

Hard rocking and high-spirited, the Bay Area alternative band Stroke 9 formed as a high school “senior project” at Marin Academy, with a number of hit records, including the catchy youth anthem Little Black Backpack and the hard-driving Kick Some Ass, prominently employed in Kevin Smith’s film Jay and Silent Bob Strike Back.
